Miller Appointed Assessor

At a special meeting of the Antioch Township board Mar. 11, J. P. Miller was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late James Kopriva as assessor. Miller is unopposed for the office at the approaching town election. He would not assume office until Jan. 1, 1954 and since much needs to be done before then, the appointment took place. Kopriva was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Ernest Simons, who died. Then Kopriva died before the term was up.

Earlier Mail Train Started Last Sunday

Changes in schedules of the Soo Line railroad have again changed mail transmission from Antioch postoffice, according to Roy I. Kufalk, postmaster. The evening train, which has been carrying mail from here at 7:56 p. m., since last Sunday arrives at 8:28 p. m. This will make earlier mailing of letters and parcels necessary if they are to leave Antioch postoffice the same day as mailed, said Kufalk. In the past mail received up to closing time, 6 p. m. has been processed at the local office and sent out. In the future mail should arrive at the office before 5 p. m. to insure its going out the same day.

Little League To Use Village Land For Ball Diamond

Financial Statement Shows League Had Good Season

Little Leaguers will have the use of the ball diamond on village property, east of the Soo Line tracks again this year according to A. N. Scully, park commissioner. Scully told newsmen yesterday that there had never been any question as to whether the League would have use of the field. He said that subdivision plans of the village would not interfere in any way with use of the diamond. He added, however, that use of the park on Williams street for a ball diamond had been considered inadvisable, due to lack of space, and plans for use of the space for other purposes.

The meeting Sunday of Little League parents and officials was well attended and appointments were made as follows:

Coaches: Tigers, Jack Fields and Sigurd Nielsen; Cubs, Irv. Jonas and Clarence Verkest; Dodgers, Harry Ball and Otto Christensen; Giants, Ed Palenski; Sox, Dohman and Zerr; Yanks, Ray Wells and Hunsacker; Charles Larson and Otto Hanke will act as utility coaches and will fill in as needed. The Pony League will be managed by Ed. Zalatoris.

Plans were made to provide posters carrying the season schedule in business places of the village. All fathers of players were put on the field committee and plans will be made to get the field into shape when weather permits.

Financial Statement Read

Roman B. Vos, treasurer for the league, presented the financial statement for the past season, showing a balance of $363.01 remaining in the treasury. Total income for the season from donations, pop sales, field collections, sponsors of teams, amounted to $1,246.12. A total of $883.11 was disbursed during the year for the following items: equipment, $406.89; uniforms, $288.92; lumber, wire, trophies, tickets to Cubs game for Little Leaguers, $189.30.

5 Candidates File for Antioch Grade School Bd. Members

Interest in school elections, at a new high last year when the largest number of ballots ever recorded were cast for a school election at Antioch Grade school, continues this year with five candidates for three openings for grade school board of education members.

Two regular terms are to be filled and a two year term for filling the unexpired term of Wendell Nelson, who moved from Antioch after having served less than a year. His replacement, Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky, appointed by the remaining members of the board to serve until an election could be held, is a candidate for the unexpired term. Mrs. Patrovsky is unopposed thus far and with the deadline for filing on Saturday, March 21, it seems unlikely that she will have any opposition.

Four candidates have filed for the two regular terms. Henry Rentner, present secretary of the board, and Arthur Laursen, member are candidates for re-election. Both have been members of the board for many years.

Opposing them are Mrs. Fern Lux and Elmer Baethke. Both are well-known here, Baethke having lived here all his life, and associated in business with his father, Walter Baethke, for the past ten years.

Mrs. Fern Lux is extremely well-qualified for the position, having been in school work for many years. She was employed as first grade teacher at Antioch Grade school for more than thirty years, leaving last year to take a better position in the Waukegan Elementary school system. A very popular person in the community, Mrs. Lux is certain to poll a very large number of votes.

It is believed that the election, set for Saturday, April 11, will again attract a large number of voters to elect board members who will direct school policies for the next three years.

Vocation Day at Antioch High school Tuesday was well attended, with more than 300 students of various schools of the Northwest conference in attendance. Fifteen specialists were present to advise students in entering various fields of endeavor.

School Elections Are Important

Annual school elections for the purpose of choosing members of the boards of education at Antioch Township High school and Antioch Consolidated Grade school will take place on Saturday, April 11.

In each instance, three members of the board of education will be chosen. At the high school, reason for election of three members is that the board will henceforth consist of seven members instead of five as in the past. At the grade school two terms have expired and a vacancy is to be filled.

The importance of these elections can not be over-emphasized. Operation of our schools is perhaps the most important single function of government, and from a monetary standpoint is the most expensive. In addition, our representatives, charged with operation of the educational system, have in their hands, the job of moulding our youth into citizens of the future.

A recent release by the Lake County Civic League had this to say about school elections:

"Before long some mighty significant elections are coming up in Lake county. No, we don't mean the municipal or township election, although they too are extremely important."

"The elections we have in mind are not dramatic, nor is the office glamorous, but in terms of the amounts of money spent and the far-reaching implication of the task, the election of school board members is vital."

"Last year the Reporter pointed out that $7,789,223 or 65 per cent of all property tax money collected in Lake county goes to schools. This fact alone should pinpoint an overwhelming attention on choosing the school boards."

"On the second Saturday in April, (the 11th), elections will be held for all districts except Waukegan and Lake Forest. At least two members of all other boards are up for election. Petitions must be filed twenty-one days in advance of the elections. Usually there is only one person standing for each vacancy and this lack of contest has allowed an unhealthy apathy to pervade these elections."

"While we don't want to see these school elections become free-for-all politics, some choice and a discussion of school policy should accompany the balloting."

"You wouldn't let a quack doctor treat your child, nor would you allow a spendthrift to manage your affairs. Take the same concern over the development of Junior's mind and with the spending of two-thirds of your taxes."

Believing that the informed voter is the intelligent voter, we have, with the assistance of Louis Biel, secretary of the board of education, Antioch Township High school, compiled the following information concerning the six candidates for three high school board positions:

Walter Hills, incumbent, has been a member of the board for fifteen years, and has acted as president in the past. He has lived in Antioch township for forty-two years, and has operated a farm here during that time. He has four sons, all of whom are graduates of Antioch Township High school. He has been commander of the local Legion post and has been active in that organization since returning from service in World War I.

M. C. Cain, Main street, Antioch, is a candidate for public office for the first time here, although he has been a resident of Antioch for ten years. He is employed as manager of the Pure Milk plant at Salem, Wis. A graduate of Parsons college, Fairfield, Iowa, he also holds a degree from Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa. Four boys, two of whom attend Antioch Grade school and two in high school, keep Mr. Cain interested in the youth of the community. He is superintendent of the Methodist church school and a member of the official board of the church.

Mrs. Virginia Herbert, Lake Villa, is the mother of two sons of grade school age, and has lived in Lake Villa for the past sixteen years. She has been active in P. T. A. work in Lake Villa and also in Red Cross work. She is a member of the Deep Lake Woman's club.

Mrs. Einar Petersen, Spafford street, Antioch, has lived in Antioch for twenty-seven years, is the mother of six children, three now attending high school. Mrs. Petersen has long been active in school affairs, having served as president of the high school parents group, and as an officer in the grade school P. T. A. She is a member of Antioch Methodist church, O. E. S., Antioch Woman's club, and many other organizations. She is a graduate of Antioch Township High school.

John F. Romer, forty-four years of age, is married, with two children, and is presently engaged in the fire insurance business as an engineer. He attended Purdue University and Lewis Institute. He resides on Route 59 in Lake Villa township. He is an active member of the Lake Villa Community Men's club and at present is president of the Lake Villa Grade School P. T. A.

Roman B. Vos, Main street, Antioch is well known here, having lived in Antioch for the past fifteen years. He is the father of six children, three of whom have graduated from Antioch Township High school, one a junior, and two in grade school. He served in World War I, was Civil Defense director during World War II, and has served as commander of the local Legion post. At present he is adjutant of the post. He is a member of the Antioch Lions club, and has served as president in the past. He is employed at the Antioch Lumber and Coal company as manager.

Lack of foresight in planning by the Antioch High School board during the past seven years has resulted in deficit financing to the point that the current school year will be ended with the school approximately $90,000.00 in debt.

Now, if ever, seems to be the time to elect the best possible persons to membership on the school boards. . . . Go to the polls on Saturday, April 11, and cast your ballot for these important positions.

"Going Places" Cast To Be on Air Mar. 25

Five members of the cast of "Going Places" comedy to be presented March 27, and Mrs. Jeanette Tulumello, director, will present a broadcast of parts of the play next Wednesday morning at 11 a. m. The play will be staged Friday, March 27.

Gillum Heads New Group At Lake Marie Sub-Div.

W. B. Gillum was elected president of the California Ice and Coal Co. subdivision, Lake Marie, in an informal meeting of the new organization at Soper's Spa Sunday.

Richard Gruner of Otto's Steak House, was elected treasurer, and Rocco Marrotta, secretary.

Arrangement was made to hold the annual picnic July 10, 11, and 12 at Fourth ave., and Rte. 173.

Committee assignments were Mrs. Jack Thornton, chairman, John Olson, and Mrs. Jean Halsman who will look after the prizes.

Profits from the picnic will be used to improve roads, boat landings and beaches.

Schools Closed Tomorrow
Antioch schools will be closed tomorrow, Friday, in order that teachers may attend a teachers' meeting at Zion.

Two Channel L. Patrols Qualify for Glenview Scout First Aid Meet

The northwest district of Boy Scouts of America held its first annual Scout First Aid meet last Friday at the Gavin school.

This was a qualifying meet to see which patrols of the district can enter the council meet at the Glenview Air base on March 28.

Among the 23 patrols entered three were from troop 88 of Channel Lake. The Explorer and Co-Coop patrols qualified with an A grade which is 90 per cent or better of total points. The Stag patrol got a B grade which is from 80 to 90 per cent, and fell short of the requirement to enter the Glenview meet.

The boys were accompanied by Scoutmaster Ray Atwood. Fred Yates and Bill Dow of the Antioch Rescue squad served as judges of the boys.

Sons Born to Antiochans

A son was born Monday to Village Trustee and Mrs. Murrill Cunningham, 274 Park ave., at Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan. He has been named Gary Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burnette are the parents of a son born Saturday at Victory Memorial hospital. He has been named Gary Owen.

Contest for Supervisor Develops in Lake Villa Town Election April 7

Ed. J. Kidera to Oppose Ed. Tiede in Write-in Campaign

Ed. J. Kidera of Grand ave. became an independent candidate for supervisor of Lake Villa township in a write-in campaign which will be staged by his friends.

He will oppose Art Tiede, who became the Citizen party candidate without opposition on the ballot when Art Bennett, supervisor for 12 years declined to run again.

Kidera in waging a vigorous campaign points to his training and education as a registered professional engineer and a registered land surveyor as part of his qualifications. He is a contractor and is experienced in the building business.

He is sending out letters to all of the voters today enclosing gummed stickers bearing his name which may be stuck to the ballot. If no sticker is available the voter must write in the name and make a cross in the square which must be provided for write-in candidates.

The only other contest in the election which will be held April 7, is for constable, where Kenneth Barnstable is running as an independent.

Swimming Instruction Considered for Children of Antioch by P. T. A.

Antioch grade school children may have the opportunity to learn how to swim under professional instruction this summer.

William Thompson, assistant to the county superintendent of schools, explained to the Parent Teacher association a plan Monday evening by which the Red Cross provides instruction to children of the sixth grade and older at a private pool near Round Lake each summer.

Instruction is free but the Parent-Teacher association must arrange for transportation and a pool fee.

Mrs. Gloria Erickson, and Mrs. Fanny Yates, the latter a member of the school faculty, were appointed as a committee to ascertain whether or not such a program can be worked out for the Antioch youngsters.

Thompson, an experienced swimming instructor, formerly with the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. discussed water safety before the P. T. A. He was informed that while Antioch is in the midst of lakes its children do not get a chance to learn to swim for lack of instruction.

Father of 11 Killed in Car Accident at Rt. 45 Sand Lk. Rd.

The Antioch Rescue squad was called to give aid to the injured in an auto accident Sunday on Rte. 45 and Sand Lake rd. in which the father of 11 children was killed and the mother and three children were injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hoagland, 1400 S. Chestnut st., Green Bay, Wis., and three children were taken to St. Therese hospital where Mr. Hoagland, 42, was pronounced dead of a broken neck, and Mrs. Hoagland, 33, Robert J., 11, Betty Lou, 1, and Marvin, 6 weeks old, were treated for multiple back and head injuries.

Capt. Herman Holbek said that death for Mr. Hoagland probably was instant. The car went off the road onto the shoulder and apparently got out of control, rolling completely over.

"Stockpiling Bureaucrats"

It has been announced that the President will not ask Congress for stand-by authority to reimpose price controls in the event a national emergency should occur after the present law expires. He believes that if such an emergency arises, Congress can quickly pass new laws to deal with it. However, a number of Congressmen still are urging that a stand-by bill be passed.

Senator Bush of Connecticut offered an interesting judgment on this when he characterized the stand-by law as a plan for "stockpiling bureaucrats." It is obvious that if the stand-by law were to have any meaning at all, some sort of an organization for putting it into effect and enforcing it would have to be maintained—and our huge public payroll would be that much larger.

Going beyond this phase of the matter, it is difficult to see how the stand-by plan can be justified. In these days of fast transportation and instant communication, Congress could assemble and vote new laws with little delay even if an emergency should appear when it was not in session. And it is one of the truisms of political life that when a law giving government great powers is in existence, even though dormant, many people itch to use it.

Price control has been a costly experiment for the producers, retailers, and consumers it was supposed to help. It is repugnant to every concept of economic, social and individual freedom. Its burial should be complete.

No Favors Wanted

Railroad management, according to late reports, looks to the immediate future with some optimism.

That optimism, to quote the Chicago Daily News, is in large part based on the hope "that present transportation laws—designed when the railroads had a virtual transportation monopoly—will be revised and brought up to date in 1953.

"What the industry seeks is equality of regulation and competition for all forms of transport and a policy that makes users of government-provided facilities pay their fair share for the use of such facilities."

The railroads ask no favors of any kind. They aren't trying to escape regulation or competition. All they want is a kind of regulation that is in tune with the conditions of the present—and competition in which each competitor stands on his own feet and pays his own way.

The railroads have faith in this country. They have been spending well over $1,000,000,000 a year for new rolling stock. No industry has done more to give better, safer, surer and more efficient service. And they have carried on their tremendous spending for these purposes at a time when earnings have been dangerously low.

The question isn't just one of fair treatment of the railroads. The goal is to establish a new transportation policy in the interest of the national welfare and security.

For the Many

A significant sidelight on present-day corporation financing accompanied the announcement that Secretary of Defense Wilson would sell his General Motors stock—almost 40,000 shares, with a market value of $2,700,000.

Some feared that the disposal of so large a block might cause abnormal market disruptions. But this fear was at once shown to be groundless. The Secretary's stock-holdings amounted to less than one-twentieth of one per cent of GM common stock outstanding. Some 2,500,000 shares of the stock were bought and sold on the exchange last year. It was obvious that Mr. Wilson's holdings could be handled in a routine fashion.

The day when one man or a small group of men could dominate representative "big business" through their ownership of securities is as much history as the horse and buggy. Once the number of people who owned stocks could be numbered in the thousands. Today the figure runs far into the millions. Once most shareowners were men of wealth and large affairs. Today most of them are people with average jobs and incomes. As the total of individual share-holders has increased, the average number of shares owned by each has diminished.

Share ownership, in other words, is now something for the many, not for just the few.

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

What we are to do in this land of speed and hurry with the added automobile drivers who figure it is smart to hit it up to 80 so long as their rear view mirror shows no officer on their trail—that is the question. It is not just gawky teen-agers—it is smartly mamas and papas too, who speed—who cross double lines on the pavement—who have no idea as to what is an arm signal—who put manners and courtesy on ice, once they step on the starter and take off.

We might slow down the speeding part, if we went back to 20 horsepower versus 150 horsepower engines. But the matter of manners and courtesy—out the window as now—will require stern means. One police officer per mile might cut the mustard. Even that is doubtful. And while on the patrolmen subject, of all the folks who deserve the highest praise and the most liberal pay it is these men who try to so manage traffic that the fewest victims will be carted to the undertakers.

As a starter on highway safety, all budgets for police and patrolmen should be boosted.

Yours with the low down,

JO SERRA

A good place to work...
4 true stories

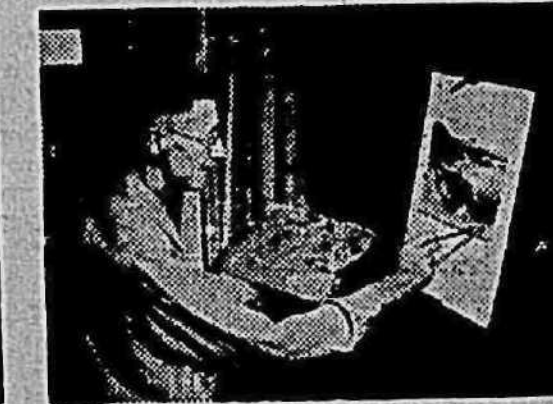

UP FROM THE RANKS. Robert Meyers started as a clerk 27 years ago. He is now a Plant Superintendent, supervising 1,600 employees. Like other telephone people with 21 or more years of service, he is a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America. "I believe young men and women should make their job decisions in the same careful way one makes a long-range investment," he says. "I selected Illinois Bell Telephone Company as a good place to work because of its up-from-the-ranks promotion policy—and I'm glad I did."

FROM TRAINEE TO OPERATOR. When June Steinbeigle (right) took her position at the switchboard for the first time, it was no stranger to her. She had been to "telephone school." And she earned full pay while learning. Delores Collis, instructor, says: "Training classes are small and informal. New girls learn to handle calls by working at a 'practice' switchboard." Six out of 10 girls hired last year were sent to Illinois Bell by telephone employees who recommended the company as a good place to work.

DESIGN FOR LIVING. Telephone people like to get together after hours, too. The "Design for Living" program, for instance, is popular with telephone girls. The groups meet for 10 weeks. Discussion sessions cover home planning, entertainment, travel, etiquette, good grooming, literature, conversation and hobbies. Mildred Mika, clerk in one of our offices, took the course last fall. She says: "It's hard to believe you can have so much fun—and learn so much, too."

WHEN PAINTING'S A PLEASURE. George Saunders has plenty of time now to indulge in his favorite pastime. After 34 years with Illinois Bell, he retired 2 years ago at the age of 65. He has been receiving monthly pension checks ever since. The company's pension plan was established in 1913, forty years ago, at a time when the idea of social security was still a novelty. The entire costs of the plan are paid by the company.

5 High School Youths Admit Thefts of Four Mail Boxes as Prank

Five local high school boys ranging in ages from 15 to 18 years admitted taking four mail boxes from Sylvan Beach rd. recently when taken to the sheriff's office in Waukegan Tuesday morning.

Victims of the thefts refused to prosecute and the boys were released. It was necessary for Postmaster Roy Kufalk to report the matter to the postal department and a letter received today from J. Williamson, inspector in charge at the post office Chicago office of inspection indicates that the postal authorities may not be as lenient as local authorities.

Postmaster Kufalk's letter to the department made it clear that restitution had been made and added that no further action would be taken unless directed by the Chicago office. Williamson's letter simply states that an investigation of the matter will be made by the inspection department.

For any adult stealing a box the law provides for a year in jail and $3,000 fine.

Postmaster Kufalk said that this is the second time he has had to report vandalism in the past year. Earlier, boys placed firecrackers in mail boxes blowing them apart.

Discovery of the theft occurred when the boys had an accident with their car and two of the mail boxes were found in the car while two others were said to have been tossed over a fence.

Response Great to Call for Workers at Warwick Plant

More than 1000 men and women filed applications for work at Warwick Manufacturing Corporation's television plant in Zion over the weekend, plant manager Howard Rymer said.

The company arranged an extra day of interviewing Monday to take care of the overflow of applicants who appeared on Saturday for production jobs. There was no interviewing on Sunday.

"It was gratifying to have so many people come over and see us in the rainy weather. However, we regret that, because of the large number of applicants, many had to wait longer than expected for their interviews," stated Rymer.

Ten of the company's executive staff interviewed almost 500 men and women Saturday with several hundred being re-scheduled for Monday. Approximately 225 applicants for foremen and supervisory jobs were interviewed Thursday and Friday. While waiting for interviews, applicants watched television on sets made by Warwick, saw exhibits of the type of work available and visited a coffee-and-doughnut table set up to accommodate the crowd.

Rymer indicated that the company would make a careful study of the applications immediately and notify applicants within the next few weeks.

The above plate, made as a test of the new Fairchild engraving equipment installed recently by publishers of Lake County, is a reproduction of an advertisement which appeared in the Antioch News on Dec. 6, 1894, fifty-eight years ago. The News was young in those days being about eight years old, and the publishers were Burke and Storms. The C. O. Fols store was located on the corner of Lake and Main in the "Opera House building" in those days. Imagine the rush that would take place if such an advertisement appeared today. The same issue contained an advertisement by Webb & Co., offering men's suits as low as $3.50. The best grade, however, had been reduced from $14.00 to $11.00.

700,000 Grass Fires Out of Control Each Year, Says Institute

The pungent odor of burning grass, rubbish and brush drifts through nearly every suburban community in the country during spring months. But, according to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, more than 700,000 of these fires get beyond control, endangering lives and destroying property running into millions of dollars annually.

Moreover, they all but drive the local fire departments crazy, and cost town governments thousands of dollars in unnecessary fire protection costs. These costs come directly out of taxpayers' pockets. As an example, one typical New England suburban city of 38,000 population reports that fighting uncontrolled grass fires cost the city $128,199 in 1952.

The Institute says that burning over grass and brush areas may be beneficial spring clean-up of your property, but urges that you know how to do the job properly and safely before you start. The following pointers will help you to remain on friendly terms with your neighbors as well as the fire department and may save you the cost of a fine or a lawsuit.

Collect the proper tools for effective grass fire control. These include a heavy shovel, wet brooms and a portable pump tank extinguisher if possible.

Lay out lengths of garden hose equipped with a nozzle and connected to a good water supply if the area to be burned is near buildings. Transport barrels or tanks of water to areas where water lines are not available.

Be sure that sufficient help is standing by to lend assistance if needed. Stay in attendance until all fire is extinguished. Never allow children near the burning area; they may get burned. Make sure that you observe local fire ordinances governing this type of burning. In suburban areas it is best to notify the fire department of your intention and the time you plan to burn. You may find this a legal requirement.

Always choose a day when there is no breeze, but be prepared for one to spring up any time.

Keep in mind that wind and weather conditions, as well as conditions of grass or brush makes this type of burning tricky and unpredictable. The job should be tackled seriously and with full observance of all safety rules.

ALL HIS LIFE, JOHNNY KEPT PLANTING TINY SEEDS FOR THE FUTURE. AND TODAY, AS SPRING BEGINS TO WARM THE BIG BROAD LAND HE LOVED, AMERICANS ARE PLANTING FOR THEIR OWN FUTURE THROUGH INCREASED SAVINGS AND LIFE INSURANCE—WHICH WILL GROW AND RIPEN JUST AS SURELY AS JOHNNY'S APPLE SEEDS.
